PEOPLE

Individuals . . . The many faces of our school. Different expressions, different moods, different people. We all hove two things in common—we belong here, and we ore the school . . .

Friends . . . Getting together, lending an ear, a hand, or a voice. Having fun with, passing the time with, getting along with, or just putting up with—that's what friendship seems to be about . . .

Georgia Occupational Award of Leadership

On Tuesday, May 28, Governor Joe Frank Harris signed a proclamation designating the week of May 27-31 as GOAL Week. The Georgia Occupational Award of Leadership program recognizes outstanding postsecondary vocational students in the state. This program is the first of its kind in the nation.

During GOAL Week, 32 student winners from postsecondary technical schools all over Georgia were in Atlanta to compete for the state GOAL title. They were judged on leadership qualities and academic excellence. The GOAL student winner will serve as an ambassador for Georgia's vocational educational system. As in the past, this year's winner will receive a new automobile donated by Georgia businesses.

Five years ago the Performance Recognition Indicating Demonstrated Excellence (PRIDE) Award was added to the GOAL program. It is a separate competition in which the students submit exhibits that demonstrate their competence and level of expertise in a chosen field. The exhibits are judged during GOAL Week by members of business and industry. The PRIDE winner receives an award of $1,000 donated by Georgia businesses.

Kimberly Barland, a Practical Nursing student, was the local GOAL winner at Lanier Tech this year. She was selected by a local Chamber of Commerce GOAL Awards committee. This committee was made up of Bob Bowen, Chairman; Bernice Cox, co-chairman; Joyce Stephens, Jim Adams and Chuck Dyramett. This committee collected over $1,000 in award monies for the four local nominees. Runners-up were Jennifer Scott, Tailoring and Fashion, and Denise Clark and Becky Hulme, both of Cosmetology.

GOAL Week competitions were held at the Radisson Inn (I-75 and Howell Mill Rd.) and the winners were announced at the awards banquet on May 30. The competition will be televised by WAGA TV on June 1st at 12:30 p.m. and by Public TV on June 16th at 12:30 in the afternoon.

The Georgia Department of Education and the Business Council of Georgia co-sponsor GOAL and PRIDE. Businesses around the state support the local GOAL competitions through donations, time and serving as judges. Locally, the Gainesville-Hall County Chamber of Commerce is the prime sponsor. The Gainesville Lion's Club was a co-sponsor this year.
